Colorado bishops to preside at funeral of Jay Cimino; Mass will be livestreamed

COLORADO SPRINGS. Bishop James Golka and Bishop Emeritus Richard Hanifen of the Diocese of Colorado Springs and Bishop Stephen Berg of Pueblo will preside at the funeral Mass for Jay Cimino on March 1 at 10 a.m. at St. Paul Church. Bishop Hanifen will serve as homilist for the funeral Mass.

Mr. Cimino was a longtime member of St. Paul Parish and generously supported several Catholic organizations in the Pikes Peak Region, including St. Mary's High School, Catholic Charities of Central Colorado, and the Diocese of Colorado Springs. Each year, he graciously provided the Bishop of Colorado Springs with a vintage automobile to appear in the St. Patrick's Day Parade.

Due to the number of people who are anticipated to attend the funeral, it will also be livestreamed on the St. Paul Parish website at <https://stpaulcos.org/livestream>.
