To the Faithful of the Diocese of Colorado Springs,

As many of you are aware, The Society of St. Pius X (SSPX) has been declared in schism with the Roman Catholic Church. The bishops and priests of the Society have incurred excommunication and lay Catholics who formally adhere to the Society have separated themselves from full communion with the Church.

We are aware of the following communities, in our Diocese, who are also not in communion with the Roman Catholic Church and Catholics should not participate in their liturgies or activities:

Servants of the Holy Family

8528 Kenosha Dr., Colorado Springs, CO 80908

Carmelite Monastery of the Sacred Hearts

8540 Kenosha Dr., Colorado Springs, CO 80908

Immaculate Conception Church

228 11th St., Burlington, CO 80807

Mary Help of Christians Traditional Catholic Church

920 E. Cache la Poudre St., Colorado Springs, CO 80903

St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Community

19650 Mainstreet, Parker, CO 80138

If you have questions about these communities or on how to speak about them with others, please contact your pastor.

Should you encounter other groups who claim to represent the Roman Catholic Church or the Diocese, please contact the chancery.

Very Rev. Kyle T. Ingels
Administrator, Diocese of Colorado Springs
